BLOOMINGTON, ILL.

INTRODUCTORY.

In presenting this, our Fourth Annual Directory of Bloomington, it was our intention to give a complete history of the city—as also McLean County, but found that to do so would require an immense amount of labor and consume much more time and space than we could devote to the subject; besides, we have since learned that Mr. J. W. Fell and others are preparing a Centennial history of McLean County, which will be so far ahead of anything our efforts could accomplish in that respect, that we with pleasure refer our readers to their work as being one that will do justice and be an honor as well as of incalculable benefit to this City and County.

That Bloomington has and is continually growing must be admitted by all who have made any observations whatever. That it is a healthy growth is evident. In the report of the City Treasurer for the fiscal year ending April 30th, 1876, it is shown that there was received from all sources $111,477.72; received from former treasurer $52,280.26 a total of $163,757.98. Total amount paid out during the year $148,740.97 leaving a cash balance on hand of $15,017.01. Total amount of assets at that time was $341,938.83 with resources to the amount of $99,811.39. Total liabilities $118,852, the assets therefore are in excess of liabilities $223,086.64. Considerable sewerage has been constructed during the past year, the streets are being improved and will compare favorably with those of any other city of its size in the West and the completion of the water works has already been of immense benefit to the city, adding to the comfort of its citizens and greater protection against fires. Many new buildings have been erected and are now in course of construction which will add greatly to the appearance of our streets at the same time giving evidence of the prosperity of our business men.

In point of numbers we can boast of a steady increase in population as will be seen by the following figures. In 1873 our census of this city showed a population of 20,100. This year we have been very careful to exclude the names of many persons too young, or non-residents of the city; therefore our estimate is based on the number of names of bona-fide residents which is 6,623; taking the usual ratio of $3\frac{1}{2}$ to each name gives us in round numbers a POPULATION OF 23,180.

To prove this estimate we have the school census just completed by the Board of Education which gives the number of

Males under 21 years of age,	-	-	-	-	-	-	3,804
Females	"	"	-	-	-	-	3,952
Total	-	-	-	-	-	-	7,756

This is usually counted as representing one-third of the population which would give the total of 23,268 being just 88 more than our estimate.

To a superficial observer these figures may seem large but when you take into consideration the extent of surface included within the city limits, the numerous buildings occupying it, and more, the number of representatives belonging to many of the occupants, and the number of families crowded into some habitations it will be seen that there are more people living in the city than a casual observer can possibly have a chance to note. No one knows this better than the directory canvasser, who searches every "nook and corner" in quest of information.

EDITORIAL REVIEW.

Our Classified Business Register, also the Appendix or index to City and County officials, corporations, schools, churches, societies, etc., which follows the general directory of names, is probably the best indicator of the importance and extent of Bloomington interests and the enterprise of its business men; nevertheless, we make especial mention of those liberal-minded, enterprising firms who not alone patronize the printers, but who are always ready to aid in any undertaking for the advancement of the city's interests and for the benefit of the public generally; on the principle that whatever increases the city's importance must naturally benefit those doing business in it. Of this class probably heads the list, as President of the McLean Co. Bank, President of the Bloomington Gas Light & Coke Co. etc.; who has a large amount of capital invested here, gives employment to a great number of men and is a man strictly upright in his dealings, known and respected by all.

GEN. ASAHEL GRIDLEY

N. N. WINSLOW.

This well known Soap, Candle and Oil manufacturer justly deserves the encomiums of the Press and the patronage of the public. His goods are the best that are made and dealers can do no better in Chicago, St. Louis or the East than they can here. Mr. Winslow can furnish you the same goods, as fine in quality and reasonable in prices.

C. M. & J. S. CAPEN.

This firm commenced business some two years since, and in that time have built up a good trade, both wholesale and retail. They travel in this State and Missouri and report a growing, thriving business. Their Queensware they import direct from potteries in England, and their China direct from France, thus saving their customers the jobbers profit in New York. They keep a full line of Table Cutlery, Plated Ware, Ohio and Peoria Stoneware, &c. We think parties in need of goods in their line would do well to call and see this house before purchasing. See front cover for advertisement.

C. R. PARKE, M. D.

was born in Chester county, Penna. 1823; graduated at the University of Penn. Phila. 1847; located in Bloomington 1852. The Dr. was commissioned Surgeon in the Russian army by the Emperor in 1855, and was in active service in the Crimea until the close of the war when he resigned. After visiting the principal cities of Europe he returned to Bloomington and resumed the practice of medicine and surgery. Dr. Parke was one of the surgeons selected by Gov. Yates to accompany him to Pittsburgh Landing after the battle of Shilo,

Since returning from the South—where he spent three and a half years on account of his health—he has devoted himself almost exclusively to an office practice, treating Chronic Diseases, particularly the Eye, Ear, Club-Foot, Female Diseases, and general Surgery.

Last year Dr. Parke invented a Surgical Splint for broken limbs, which is highly spoken of by the surgeons of Chicago and New York who have examined it. His rooms, as seen by card, are on North Main St., 606, where he can be consulted at all times from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

INTER-STATE COMMERCIAL & TELEGRAPH COLLEGE.

Capital stock, $50,000. Located in People's Bank Block, south-west corner of Court House Square. This institution, recently incorporated under the Incorporation laws of Illinois, is on the most complete basis possible, being supplied with every facility for making first-class business men and telegraph operators. It having in construction over four hundred miles of line, will do a work never before attempted by any institution in the country. Its facilities for bringing telegraphing to the highest standard can not be excelled by any Telegraph Office or Institution on the continent. Its system of establishing offices anywhere on the line is magnificent and affords the greatest opportunity to those who have commenced to learn telegraphing and failed for want of facilities to go on and become perfection in the art.

Diplomas granted under the corporate seal of the College in either Business or Telegraphic course to all qualified and worthy.

HARWOOD BROS. & CO.

Is one of the oldest established Hardware, Stove and Agricultural Implement houses in the city. The depot of the Bloomington Stove Company, they do a very large business. This firm commenced in their present location, No. 212 N. Centre st., as Harwood & Co., in 1857, in 1862 it was changed to Harwood Bros., and now Harwood, Bros. & Co., are conducting this extensive establishment.

JAY N. WARD

Commenced in the Furniture business as far back as the year 1838. His location then was East Front st.; he afterwards moved to the corner of Centre and Washington, then to South Main st., but for the past twenty-five years he has been carrying on an extensive trade in his present location, 203 North Main st., and is without question the oldest furniture dealer in the city.

GEORGE BRAND.

Also in the Furniture trade is doing a paying business, keeps first-class workmen, and his warerooms are worthy of a visit by any one contemplating buying. His work always gives satisfaction. Salesrooms and factory, No. 111 N. Main st., up-stairs.

ADOLPH BENECKE.

Sept. 24th, 1875, the firm of Benecke & Butler started in the boot and shoe line at 113 S. Main st. Firm changed in March, '76, and the business is now carried on by Adolph Benecke. He keeps a large stock of the best manufacture and latest styles. Mr. B. was formerly with J. R. Smith & Co., and is a gentleman of affable manners, and tries to please his customers.

J. E. HOUTZ & CO.

Prominent among the dry goods trade of Central Illinois stands the large house of J. E. Houtz & Co. Although this firm have been doing business in this city only about three years they have built up a trade excelled by few retail houses in the State, outside of Chicago. They occupy the largest room of any house in Bloomington, always keep a large assortment of the latest styles in their line, and for polite attention to the wants of their customers and reasonableness in prices we can cheerfully recommend them to the public and especially to the ladies.

[WELCOME B. MOORE.

Marble Worker and Dealer, on West Washington st., is as well known as his monuments, statuary, etc., are unsurpassed in workmanship and style. His workmen are first-class, and promptness is one of his characteristics.

N. DIEDRICH.

Notwithstanding his being burned out over a year ago, and consequent heavy losses, has rebuilt on the old site a fine large substantial brick building. The DAILY LEADER, of June 27th, says of it: "The Union Foundry, near the I. B. & W. Depot, is now in operation and a blast is made each day. Eighteen men are given employment, and the castings turned out are smooth and perfect. The machinery is run by an eighteen-horse power engine made by Mr. Diedrich himself. The foundry is light, airy, and conveniently arranged. The facilities for making building castings are unexcelled by any foundry in the State—the collection of patterns being very large. Our citizens should patronize home enterprise, and this establishment is especially deserving."

HALDEMAN MARBLE WORKS.

South-west cor. Main and Olive sts., Bloomington, Ill. This old and reliable house was established in Bloomington, Illinois, by A. C., A. J., and J. R. Halde- man, in the spring of 1851, in a little one-story frame building on the south-west corner of Court House Square, but was removed in '52 to north-west corner of Front and East sts., and in '53 to 223 East Front st. But owing to the steady increase of business was soon out-grown and another removal became necessary, and it was decided to purchase the old Catholic church and grounds on the south-west corner of Main and Olive sts., to which the works were removed in June, 1873, after having been fitted up in fine style with office, two mantle rooms, monumental rooms, cutting and polishing rooms, together with a large show yard, completing one of the best and most extensive factories in the north-west.

Importing direct from the factories in Scotland, having facilities unsurpassed; this house is doing an extensive business in the celebrated Scotch Granite. In Marble Mantles these works are justly celebrated, having furnished many of the finest residences in Bloomington and vicinity. The work from this establishment is unsurpassed in elegance and beauty of design, symmetry of proportion and excellence of finish, and together with this, the very best stock that the marble and granite quarries afford (American and Foreign) are used, which facts have secured to this house a constant increasing trade, even through these three past years of panic times. Many and fine samples of its work may be found in not only the Bloomington Cemeteries, (Protestant and Catholic) but fine monuments and gravestones from these works beautify nearly every cemetery and grave yard in Central Illinois; and no other commendation than a careful examination of the material and workmanship of all those having the name of these works cut upon them is necessary.

C. C. SMITH.

This gentleman, assisted by his lady, commenced business here in April last and have steadily gained popularity as well as a large business. It is now the only first-class wholesale and retail Millinery house in the city. They are also making a specialty of Mourning Goods and Bridal Outfits.

With thirty years' experience in the millinery trade, this house can assuredly give its customers entire satisfaction.

LANGE BROTHERS.

This firm started their extensive Clothing House here in 1875, carry a large stock and do the largest business of any clothing house in the city. "One Price" is their motto." This is a branch of their Springfield and New York houses, the latter being their manufacturing house.

F. A. PACKARD

Is the popular head of "Packard's Insurance Agency." This agency is first-class in every respect, represent only solid, substantial companies, and is doing a large share of the insurance business in this city and vicinity. By reference to the top lines through the body of this directory any one can see the companies represented by this agency. Mr. Packard started in this business in 1865; afterwards the firm was changed to Monroe & Packard; in 1872 it was Monroe, Packard & Co., in 1873 Packard & Lambert, and is now F. A. Packard again alone. He has stuck to the business, and through promptitude and energy the business sticks to him.

F. A. BALLER,

For about nine years florist with F. K. Phoenix, but since 1872 for himself, has an extensive green-house and floral garden on the Street Railway, just north of the Wesleyan University. A thorough knowledge of his business, combined with energy, has brought him an extensive trade. It is said of him that he is one of the best florists in the country. Call and see his collection, to be convinced.

THOS. W. BELCHAM.

The popular Painter, at 119 North Main street, is always ready to do house sign, and ornamental painting in the best manner and highest style of the art

MAHAN & SHEPHERD.

The Real Estate and Loan Agency business has received a new and first-class acquisition to its ranks. Although but lately started, this firm is doing a large and lucrative business, and we bespeak for them a good share of the trade which they well deserve by fair and honest dealing. Insurance forms no small part of their business as they represent some of the best companies in the country.

G. W. STUBBLEFIELD & CO.

Are well known as heavy Stock dealers. They are now permanently established on Madison street, just North of Grove, where they keep some of the finest horses to be seen in the country. They are importing regularly large numbers of Norman stock of the best blood. They are always pleased to see their friends and customers, and deem it no trouble to show their fine animals. Call and see them.

The GERMAN HOTEL, M. Edelman, Prop'r.

Located at No. 515 North Main street. This house combines a boarding house, restaurant and billiard hall, all in the same building. Its accommodations are good in every respect. The billiard hall contains several of the finest tables to be found in the State, and the sample room stocked with the very best wines and liquors manufactured. Good order is always preserved and mine host with his assistants are always on the alert to please their customers.

J. L. WOLCOTT.

One of the most honorable men we represent is Mr. J. L. Wolcott, who has been the Undertaker of our city for over twenty years. He knows the wants of the community in his line, and keeps a full stock of coffins, of all sizes, qualities and prices, metallic coffins, caskets, &c. A fine hearse and carriages are furnished to funerals, and Mr. W. generally attends to them in person. His shop and office are near the center of the city on Centre street, 3d door South of Grove, where everybody can be accommodated readily and in a satisfactory manner.

BAILEY PLUMB.

Is one of the Boss Painters of the country, too well known for us to say much in his behalf. If you cannot get satisfaction otherwise, try him.

H. W. LEECH.

Is a first-class Tailor, deserving of his popularity. His suits are "Nobby," well-made and his prices reasonable. The Fire Department have just been "clothed" by him and reflect credit on his workmanship.

VAN SCHOICK & ANDRUS, PALACE OF MUSIC.

This is a new firm, not new in the business, however, as Mr. Andrus has been connected with G. W. Strobe in the music line for several years. They now own the entire stock of Strobe's Palace of Music, and are doing an extensive business. Their stock of Pianos, Organs, Music, and Musical instruments generally is the very best, and their aim is to please. They are enterprising, reliable and attentive to business. It is undoubtedly the most extensive music houses in Central Illinois, probably in the State outside of Chicago.

L. FLINSFACH

Still carries on an extensive Carriage and Wagon Manufactory at the corner of Oak and Market sts. His work is excelled by none, and he is well known as a first-class reliable workman.

FLINSFACH & DENEEN

Are doing a very good business in the Undertaking line. They are not as long established as some others in that trade, but are rapidly gaining popularity.

DR. I. W. CRIST,

As a good reliable Dentist is well known. His work tells. He was for a long time located at the North-west corner of Main and Jefferson sts., but has lately taken more pleasant and commodious rooms in Royce Block, at the south-east corner of Main and Front sts.

K. BUFFHAM

Is a No. 1 Sign Painter. His specimens, "hanging on the outer walls," at the corner of Main and Washington streets, give some evidence of the artistic handling of his brush.

R. W. AND T. T. STUBBLEFIELD,

Importers and Breeders of Norman and Clydesdale horses, are "up" in their business, and can show some very fine stock at their barn on North Mason st., near Market.

WM. SCHAUSTEN

Keeps, without exception, the most popular resort in this part of the country. It is a cool, pleasant retreat, where the very best of cool Cincinnati Lager can be had, as well as the best wines, liquors and cigars. Without doubt it is the best conducted and orderly establishment of the kind in Central Illinois.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY LEADER.

The Daily Leader is a large 32 column sheet, well printed, spicy and a first-class local newspaper, and claims the largest circulation in the city. It advocates the republican party, and is a liberal minded enterprising journal. Its editors and reporters are gentlemen of talent, M. F. Leland, proprietor. The daily is issued every afternoon except Sunday. The weekly is issued every Thursday, and is one of the best readable newspapers in the State. Its circulation is very large and the subscription price only $1.50 per annum.

The Leader Steam Job Rooms is a first-class well equipped office, turning out as fine work as any office in the country. This book is referred to as a sample of their book work.

MCLEAN COUNTY DEUTSCHE PRESSE.

John Koester, editor and proprietor. This paper was first published in March, 1871, and has had a steady growth since until it has become the standard german paper of the county. It is also the only one of the class printed in the county, and has a large and influential circulation. Volume 7 commences March 25th 1877. As a proof of its stability it has since fully competed against five other publications now defunct.

THE APPEAL,

Published by the Appeal Co., is an independent weekly, issued on Saturday. It is still in its infancy, being little more than a year old, but claims a fair circulation. They also have a Job Room attached.

THE BLOOMINGTON POST,

Maj. Stierlin, editor, is a german weekly of some note. Claims a good circulation and a has good appearance.

THE PANTAGRAPH.

Is a morning daily, W. O. Davis, proprietor. The weekly edition is issued on Fridays. They have also a well equipped job office.

FITZWILLIAM & SONS,

Dry Goods, Carpetings, House Furnishing, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Suits. One of the largest houses of its class in the State. Their business is very large, requiring a great number of clerks, salesmen, tailors, seamstresses, etc. This firm is so well known for their uprightness, honesty, fair dealing and general liberality that their name is a household word in nearly every family in the surrounding country. Always ready to aid in any worthy enterprise, be it for public improvements or charitable objects, well deserving of the good reputation their establishment enjoys.

CHAS. D. FLATT,

Having sold his old business at the old stand opposite the square is again at the front with a more complete stock of fine Watches and Jewelry, and still the same first class workman of yore. He is now located in Dunn's Drug Store, opposite New Post Office, and is apparently doing a rushing business, keeping him busy early and late. Charley's workmanship is so well known that his customers follow him wherever he goes.

BROWN & GRAY,

Are the popular grocers at No. 118 West Front st. Everthing in their line can be found there, and stock always fresh. This firm, although not so long established as some others in the same trade, are nevertheless having a good first class custom. They try to please, and evidently succeed.

GEO. B. COOPER,

Dealer in Lamps, Oils, Chandeliers, Petroleum Fluid, etc., etc., both wholesale and retail, is a young man of no ordinary ability. A thorough knowledge of his business, together with energy and attentiveness to his customers, as well as the fine quality of his goods is bringing him a very large and lucrative trade. His location, immediately opposite the new Post Office, is the best in the city, being convenient for everybody. We bespeak for Mr. Cooper the extensive custom his establishment merits.

RUTTAN HEATING AND VENTILATING CO.

Now occupy the building in rear of Phoenix Bank as their office. Their apparatus is highly spoken of, and they are kept busy filling contracts. Call, or send for circular.

ROBERT LOUDON.

The well known Eagle Foundry and Machine Shops, Robert Loudon, prop., are kept busy to their full capacity, in filling orders for engines, machinery of all kinds, repairing, etc. Their business in the plumbing and gas fitting alone is very extensive. Mr. Loudon is a hard working, industrious man attending to his business with promptness, hence, the deservedly good reputation he has acquired.

W. B. LAWRENCE & CO.

Is the style of the new livery firm lately opened on Front street, near L , Light & Keckley's old stand. Mr. Lawrence, late City Clerk, is well known to everybody as a straightforward business man, one to be relied on. Mr. Wills, his partner, is from Henry County, and is a professional horse trainer. Their stock is complete, of the very best, and terms very reasonable.

I. DUNN & CO.

For a long time this firm carried on the Drug and Medicine business on Chestnut street, near the Western Depot, but have lately taken that fine store in Livingston's new building, corner Front and Centre streets, opposite the new Post Office, and is doing a very large business. By reference to the bottom lines through this book it will be seen that he keeps everything in the druggist and apothecary line. Mr. Dunn considers it a pleasure, not a trouble, to attend to customers and please them all he can.

Do not buy one dollar's worth of Dry Goods until You visit the Store of J. E. Houtz & Co.

DIRECTORY BORROWERS.

Many are the complaints from those who regularly patronize the directory that they are bored so much by borrowers, not the stranger or private citizen who steps into an office, looks at the directory and goes out, but merchants, business men who continually need it for reference yet are too close fisted to buy one. These are the individuals who carry off your directory "just for a few minutes" which generally means A FEW DAYS, unless you send after it before, then you have scarcely "housed" it when some one else annoys you with the question "please lend me your directory a few minutes," perhaps you wont see it again for a week, yet these same borrowers will tell the directory canvasser that he has no use for a directory, he "knows everybody" and vice versa "everybody knows him"—too well perhaps.
